

Fraud Flags

At FCT, we're here to support your business by providing you with more than a policy. When you choose FCT, you get more protection, more solutions, and more experience.

With our extensive experience detecting fraud, we've identified the following fraud flags when processing a real estate transaction.

Purchase Transactions

- Private Agreement of Purchase and Sale
- High ratio mortgages
- Equity gifts
- Further deposits
- Power of attorney
- Recent activity on title

Refinance Transactions

- Funds are being used to pay off a loan or other debt not associated with the transaction
- Recent transfers of title or immediately prior to the mortgage
- Equity gifts
- Power of attorney
- Investment properties

Private Lender Deals

- Rush transactions
- Funds transferred outside of Canada
- High interest rate private mortgage registered on a mortgage free property
- Property has existing institutional mortgage on title and the balance owing is much lower than the registered amount
- Client cannot meet in person/not willing to verify ID
- ID and documentation doesn't appear clear
- Large number of referrals from a new source
- Only text/email communication
- The lender seems informal on aspects of the deal (no post-dated cheques or re-authorized payments)

Credit Bureau

- SIN discrepancies within the mortgage file
- Address discrepancies within the loan file
- Liabilities on credit report that are not on mortgage application
- No credit history or "thin" credit files
- Length of established credit not consistent with applicant's age
- All trade lines are opened at the same time
- Numerous recent inquiries
- Employment discrepancies
- Property has existing institutional mortgage on title and the balance owing is much lower than the registered amount

Mortgage Application

- Employer's address shown only as a post-office box or is difficult to verify
- Mortgage is an equity take out on a recently purchased mortgage free property
- Buyer currently resides at the property he/she is purchasing
- Purchase of an investment property when buyers don't own a residence
- Length of established credit not consistent with applicant's age
- Age and income of borrower
- Significant variations in the handwriting of the borrower

Assets

- Down payment is other than deposits
- Has a pattern of loyalty to other financial institutions
- Date of bank statements are unusual or out of sequence
- Buyer currently resides at the property he/she is purchasing
- Bank statements do not show deposits consistent with reported income
- Length of established credit not consistent with applicant's age

Fraud not covered by title insurance

- Application fraud
- Value fraud
- Straw buyer fraud

For more information on how you can protect yourself and your clients, visit fct.ca

Insurance by FCT Insurance Company Ltd. Services by First Canadian Title Company Limited. The services company does not provide insurance products. This material is intended to provide general information only. For specific coverage and exclusions, refer to the applicable policy. Copies are available upon request. Some products/services may vary by province. Prices and products/services offered are subject to change without notice.